

Princess Sissy and Yifei

About Yifei...

As a student of UCSD and a student of the writing class, my interests include reading, literature, music, and theater. Not hard to tell from my picture, another big interest of mine is animals 🐱 I love cats, and a fun fact about me is that my family has more than 10 cats...I don't even know exactly how many cats we have.

- Honest

We emphasize the importance of honesty, not only from an academic perspective but throughout our daily lives. I believe I hold this strength that I have been honest with people around me and with the community.

- Loyal

This is a significant strength, which we want people around us to be loyal and wish for ourselves to be loyal. This is an identity that we use a lot to describe dogs, and I guess I learned this characteristic from my Qiqi.

- Pure expression

Sometimes, expression can be a barrier between people. When people are expressing themselves, what they've said and what the other had received might be different. We need to express ourselves purely and straightforwardly.

Looking forward, I wish that I would still be a kind person like my parents, who do animal rescues. I wish I could still hold the good qualities I believe I have not, and just like animals, always stay pure and special.
